MRS. ROBERT CURRIE BURNESS

Wedding Held On Saturday

The marriage of Miss Nancy Louise Scruggs to Robert Currie Burness took place Saturday afternoon, August 8, at 4 o'clock in the Liberty Chapel Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson Scruggs of Route 3, Appomattox and the bridegroom is the son of Commander and Mrs. Henry John Burness of 107 Dogwood Trail, Elizabeth City, North Carolina.

The Reverend Billy Washburn, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was provided by the organist, Mrs. Russell Prestwick, and soloist, Miss Estelle Harding, Springfield, Va.

The bride wore a traditional wedding gown of crystal white silk organiza and peau d'orge lace, over peau de soie; designed with a fingertip bodice and an A line skirt. Scalloped lace outlined the high Victorian neckline and borders and appliques the intermission length trumpet sleeves. Lace motifs highlighted with seed pearl clusters accented the bodice and spaced spray designs of lace trimmed the skirt. From a tailored back bow at the high rise waist swept the full flowing circular chapel train of double layers of organza which was appliqued in lace. Her bouffant tiered veil of silk illusion was secured to a face framing profile headpiece of pearls.

The bride carried a Colonial bouquet of white staghorn pompons, lily of the valley and magnolia leaves centered with a white cattleya orchid.

Mrs. Ronal Gary Monk, of Lynchburg, was honor attendant. She wore a slipper length dress of peacock blue chiffon, fashioned with an A line skirt and fitted Empire bodice. Venise lace in white outlined the high Mandarin neckline, accented the bodice and trimmed the cuffs of the long, Bishop sleeves. The headpiece was of tiered net.

The other attendants were Mrs. Stuart Burness, of Lexington, Ky., Miss Mary Elizabeth Selems of Newton, New Jersey; Miss Patricia Susan Kerr, of Appomattox, niece of the bride. The attendants wore dresses identical to that of the honor attendant except that the color was aqua. They wore matching headpieces of tiered net.

Both the honor attendant and attendants carried bouquets of white majestic daisies with aqua bows and streamers.

Sharon Kay Guill, of Appomattox, was flower girl and Jerry Wayne Scruggs, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Dr. Stuart Burness, of Lexington, Kentucky, brother of the bridegroom was best man. Ushers were Commander Henry J. Burness, father of the groom, Geoff Carter Burness, Elizabeth City, N.C., brother of the bridegroom; Douglas Deffenbaugh of Waynesboro and John Greer, of Lynchburg.

The bride's mother wore a pink linen dress accented with lace. Her flowers were a corsage of cymbidium orchids.

The groom's mother wore a mint green dress trimmed with lace and lace bodice. Her flowers were a corsage of symbidium orchids.

Mrs. Joseph R. Megginson was mistress of ceremony.

Following the ceremony, the parents of the bride were hosts for a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Dudley Scruggs, brother of the bride.

The bride attended Averett College, Danville, and received her B.A. degree in business administration from Lynchburg College. The bridegroom received his B. S. degree in economics from Hampden-Sydney College.

Mrs. Eugene Downs, Clifton Forge, organist, presented a program of wedding music including "Bridge Over Troubled Water," "Laura's Theme" from Dr. Zhivago, and the theme song from Romeo and Juliet. Mrs. Downs accompanied Mrs. Graham Anderson, Covington, who sang "The Song of Ruth," "Prayer of Saint Francis of Assisi" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Archer-Rumpf Ceremony

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Linda Rumpf wore a formal gown or nylon dotted Swiss, long full sleeves with wide cuffs. an empire waist with Victorian neckline trimmed with Venice lace and chapel train. Her three-tier headpiece of silk illusion carried out the Venice lace motif of the gown. She carried a prayer book topped with white Marguerite daisies and apricot velvet streamers.

Maid of honor, Miss Peggy Anderson, Petersburg, wore a formal gown of apricot chiffon over taffeta with long full sleeves and wide cuffs. The Victorian neckline and empire waistline were trimmed with rust-colored velvet ribbon covered with yellow and apricot flowers and she carried a bouquet of yellow daisies, and wore a deep-rust velvet ribbon in her hair.

Bridesmaids, Miss Anita Thomas, Charlottesville, Miss Kitty Wyman, Chesapeake, and Miss Carol Ann Rumpf, Clifton Forge, cousin of the bride, wore dresses and hair ribbons identical to those of the honor attendant, and carried bouquets of yellow and apricot daisies.

Flower girl, Miss Sharon Archer, niece of the groom, wore a floor length gown of white dotted Swiss, with full cuffed sleeves and empire waistline, accented with apricot velvet ribbon. She carried a wicker basket of yellow and apricot flower petals.

Mr. Archer was his son's best man. Ushers were Ronald Casey Archer and William Earl Archer, brothers of the groom, Philip Wayne Thompson, cousin of the groom, all of Appomattox.

The brides' mother wore a street length blue lace, A-line dress with short sleeves, scooped neckline and empire waist, with blue accessories, and a white orchid corsage.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Archer, wore a pink linen street length, A-line dress with short sleeves, with pink accessories, and a pink orchid corsage.

Reception

A reception, given by the brides' parents, was held at the Cliftondale Country Club.

The bride's tables were covered with white linen cloths with satin skirts and candelabra arrangement. There were two wedding cakes, with two punch bowls and greens and flowers around the cakes. Linda's cake was white with apricot flowers and green leaves. Nancy's cake was all white.

Those assisting in serving were: Mrs. P. Wayne Thompson, Appomattox, Mrs. Ralph Archer, Appomattox, Miss Barbara Ward, Lynchburg, Mrs. Gary Wayne Hayes, Roanoke, and Miss Eva Miller, Clifton Forge. Also Mrs. Raymond Thompson Jr., Roanoke, Miss Susan Rhodes, Miss Joyce Shores, Mrs. Chalmer Walton, all of Clifton Forge, and Mrs. Jesse Patterson, Iron Gate. The Rev. Robert Hughes directed the wedding.

Rehearsal Dinner

A pre-rehearsal dinner for the guests and members of the wedding parties was held Friday evening, Aug. 7, by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pound of Covington, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Archer of Appomattox, in the Fellowship Hall of Central Advent Christian Church, with the ladies of Marion Damon Circle serving. Places were laid for 50 people.

For her southern wedding trip, the bride wore a brown knit dress with empire waistline and plunging neckline, accented with grey and brown and grey silk scarf, with matching accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Clifton Forge High School, and received a B.A. degree in French from Longwood College, Farmville. She also attended the Institut de Touraine in Tours, France, and will be teaching at Randolph Henry High School in Charlotte County this fall.

The groom is a graduate of Deep Creek High School, Chesapeake. He received an Associate of Arts degree from Emmanuel College, Franklin Springs, Ga., a B.S. degree in history from the University of Georgia, and will receive a Master's degree in August. He teaches political science in the Lynchburg School System.

The couple will be at home in Appomattox at the end of August.

MRS. RINNE ABBITT

TO RECEIVE DEGREE

the former Miss Diana Sue Dowdy

Wed In Double-Ring Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Diana Sue Dowdy to Robert Daniel Williams took place Saturday at 8 o'clock in Liberty Baptist bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Dowdy, of Silver Mayland. The bride-groom is the son of Mrs. Edith Williams of Appomattox, and Mr. George S. Williams, Sr.

Thomas D. Lea officiated at the double ring ceremony. A program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Nancye Mattingly, organist.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a traditional wedding gown of crystal organza over peau de soie designed with a molded bodice formed of bands of lace embroidery. The high Victorian neckline and the short sleeves were banded in lace. A bias fold of organza encircled the high rise waist of the A-line skirt. The taffeta back bow swept into a full circular chapel length train of organza. Her tiered veil of illusion was held by a headpiece of organza and lace petals with clusters of seed pearls and crystals. She carried a cascade bouquet of white stephanotis, yellow asiatic orchid, white feverfew, white daisy, star burst, pom pom and stephanotes centered with a white orchid.

Miss Annette W. Drinkard of Appomattox, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of green organza with the skirt softly gathered to a bodice above normal waistline with princess seaming and scalloped round neckline. She carried two long stemmed yellow daisies, her matching hat was a pill box with attached veil.

Miss Martha Ann Pamplin, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss Elaine Garrett, of Appomattox, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. The gowns and accessories were like that of the honor attendant.

Miss Dowdy of Silver Mayland, half-sister of the bride was flower girl. Her brother was Norman Dowdy of Richmond, cousin of the bride.

Robert Doctor, of Richmond was his brother-in-law. Ushers were Jerry Williams, Donald Williams, and John Williams, brothers of the groom; and Dennis Drinkard, brother-in-law of the groom, all of Appomattox.

The mother of the bride wore a sleeveless lavender dress with a fitted waist and full skirt, she wore matching accessories and a pink orchid. The mother of the groom wore a blue sheath dress with matching accessories and a white orchid.

After the ceremony the mother of the bride entertained with a reception in the church social hall.

Miss Theresa Moore, neice of the groom, was the register attendant. Also helping with the reception were Mrs. Louise Fulcher and Mrs. Edith Campbell, aunts of the bride; Mrs. Nancy Bishop and Mrs. Patsy Fulcher, cousins of the bride; Mrs. Patsy Doctor, sister of the groom; and Mrs. Lois Williams, sister-in-law of the groom.
